Economy Comfort

Economy Comfort is an upgrade of our Economy Class product. We recommend Economy Comfort when you want all the benefits of Economy Class with some extra comfort. At the start of your journey, you have access to priority check-in and lounge access, while in-flight you'll be seated closer to the front of the aircraft with more legroom. Food and drink are complimentary, as is access to the personal in-flight entertainment system. Also, starting this summer, Wi-Fi access will be available for purchase.

- Travellers looking for comfort and short working sessions on laptop or other devices
- Business check-in and lounge access
- 6-abreast Economy seats with the middle seat blocked for your comfort
- More legroom 33" / 84 cm
- In-flight entertainment system
- Complimentary headphones
- Universal electric outlet
- Blankets and pillows in every seat on North American routes and available on all other routes upon request
- Complimentary meal on all routes
- Complimentary beverages, excluding champagne
- You get more Saga Club points by flying in Economy Comfort
- An electric outlet for a laptop or mobile device is below the seat.

Saga Class

For an indulgent experience in an exclusive, quiet cabin at the front of the aircraft, choose Saga Class. Your Saga Class experience begins at the airport with priority check-in and lounge access, and continues on board with a pre-flight drink, hot towels, and duvet cover for overnight journeys. During the flight you can expect superior service from your dedicated cabin crew, a selection of fine wines and gourmet meals, and an amenity kit on North American routes. With 4-abreast wide seating and plenty of legroom, you'll be able to feel comfortable working or have space to stretch out and rest up for your destination.

Customers should choose Saga Class for the ultimate flexibility and travel experience with luxurious comfort and top quality services.
